VARSITY.

ST. JOE 4—ST. VIATOR'S 3

June 5.—In what was undoubtedly the most exciting game of the season the Varsity avenged the defeat they received at Kankakee in the beginning of the season. Lill was primed up for the occasion and pitched ball in professional style. St. Joe had to play an uphill game for several innings but in the last of the ninth Birkmeir's powerful home-run drive put more spirit into the unrelenting Varsity, and in a few minutes more Butler wielded the stick with such dexterity that two runs was the result of his efforts. The visitors are to be commended for their highclass kicking; without doubt they are the best crabbers that ever played on St. Joe's diamond. The coach especially will long be remembered for his proficiency in this art.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
St. Viators	0	0	0	0	1	0	2	0	0	3	5	7
St. Joe	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	4	11	6

Batteries: St. Joe—Lill and Beckman.
St. Viators—Noysochi and Bergen
Umpire—McLain.

ST. JOE 9—BATTLE GROUND 0

June 9.—In an unexciting game St. Joe added another scalp to their collection last Sunday. The visitors made a good effort but they took their defeat cheerfully when they saw what a formidable nine St. Joe has. The main feature was Sindelars home run when the bases were full and two men down. In the remaining games of the season, especially the one with Loyola, the Varsity can make just as good a record as in these two games if you give them your loyal support.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
St. Joe	1	1	1	0	5	0	0	1	0	9	13	3
BattleGround	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	3	10

Batteries: St. Joe, Sabados, Burkhardt and Beckman.
Battle Ground, Cone and Cooley.
Umpire—Maloney

To-day we meet the fast team from Loyola University of Chicago on the College grounds. This will be one of the most exciting games of the season. Don't fail to attend it.

The members of the staff will be around collecting to-day. Have your quarter ready when they call and do not put them to the trouble of making repeated trips. This means YOU.

SENIOR LEAGUE.

CARDINALS 11—ROYALS 5

June 8.—“For the fickleness of fortune is often disastrous.” The above statement is taken from Leon Lambert the gentleman who advised the Cardinals Manager to resort to a little practice instead of relying upon luck, and I heartily thank him for his admonition for I find it worth to mention.

Eisenhardt's so-called selection of curves, which proved immaterial to the Imperials according to Lambert, certainly proved affective with the Royals, who succeeded in touching Eisenhardt but for two hits, while the Cardinals gathered nine from Forsthoefel two of which were two baggers and a terrific home run driven by Lauer which featured the game. Although the Royals were defeated by the score of eleven to five, they are certainly to be commended on their good spirit especially Manager "Pat" who after loosing five successive games still had confidence and then won six straight victories even threatening to push 'Steve's' fast nine out of first place.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Cardinals	5	1	1	2	0	1	0	1	0	11	6	4
Royals	1	1	1	2	0	0	0	0	0	5	2	1

Batteries: Cardinals—Eisenhardt, Dillhoff and Lauer.
Royals—Forsthoefel and Allen.

JUNIOR LEAGUE.

RED SOX 12—TIGERS 6.

The Red Sox won from the Tigers by heavy hitting in the last inning. McDonald worked good until the last inning in which he allowed seven hits which were good for eight runs. Smith also had one bad inning when five hits and six runs were made off him.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Red Sox	3	0	1	0	8	12	10	4
Tigers	0	0	6	0	0	6	7	1

Batteries: Red Sox; Smith and Fred McDonald.
Tigers: C. McDonald and LaMair.

NAPS 8—RED SOX 1.

June 8. The Naps drove the last nail in the Junior pennant by defeating their closest rivals, the Red Sox. It was a one-sided game. The Red Sox did not have a chance after the first few innings, for they could not hit Maloney. Smith was hit frequently and was not effective with men on bases.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.
Red Sox	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	1	4
Naps	0	2	0	0	0	3	0	0	3	8	10

Batteries: Red Sox—Smith and Cavanaugh.
Naps—Maloney and Lynch.

THE LEAGUES.

Without doubt we must characterize this year as a successful one in base-ball circles. Rivalry has been great in all the leagues for the first place, and the goddess of fortune has played her part in the destiny of the various teams. In the Senior division the Cardinals have managed to land the highest per cent, and to them the honor is due of coming out victorious through conscientious and consistent practice. The fates were against them of late, but in the last game they were primed up for victory.

The Naps in the Junior league after an exciting run managed to keep the honors of the season. This team has done some great playing; they are victors because they did not lose their heads at every turn. Maloney is to be congratulated on having managed two winning teams during this scholastic year.

The Southern league has been more successful than in former years, due in great part, no doubt, to the fact that it was better united than before. The Dodgers are high men in this section.

The Midgets played some good ball, but there are not enough students in this division to make an exciting league. The Senators won the honors of the season.

The Varsity has done its share in keeping up the good record of former years. Six hundred and thirty three is the present standing, and in the games yet to be played, this record will be considerably augmented. Diligent practice has shown up in their games, especially when they were matched against some strong teams of this section.

To Our Subscribers!

With this issue DIAMOND DUST ends its fourth year. On this occasion the staff wishes to thank the patrons and subscribers and all who in any way helped in making this paper a success. To the students we wish a pleasant vacation and a safe return after the long summer days.
